CAMPA TERMED UNDESIRABLE

Warrant for Arrest of Rebel Issued in Bisbee as Step Toward Deportation to Mexico

WILL NULLIFY WRIT

United States Commissioner J. D. Taylor yesterday afternoon issued a warrant for the arrest of Emilio Campa, formerly a general in the Mexican rebel army in the state of Sonora, this being the preliminary move to secure the extradition of Campa to Mexico.

The order for the arrest of Campa came from Washington yesterday afternoon and United States Attorney J. E. Morrison, who returned to Bisbee Friday evening, immediately filed a complaint against Campa in the court of U. S. Commissioner Taylor. The Mexican government charges Campa with having committed murder and robbery in the state of Sonora and is said to have a long list of witnesses and documentary evidence to prove its charges. The Mexican government has forty days in which to make its case and to complete its showing before the department of state at Washington.

Junta Seeks Release. The arrest of Campa will be a mere formality consisting of reading the warrant to him, as the ex-rebel leader is in jail at Tucson, where he has been for several months since his arrest by officers from the office of United States Marshal Overlock.

A junta of Mexican refugees at Phoenix filed a writ of habeas corpus to secure the release of Campa, it being alleged that he has already been held longer than forty days, the limit of time in which the Mexican government may prove cause for extradition and this writ was granted by Judge Sloan Friday returnable in twenty days.

The Mexican government, however, has never before requested the extradition of General Campa and the warrant issued yesterday afternoon will hold Campa for forty more days if that time is necessary to the completion of the process of extradition. No complaint had previously been filed against Campa but he was being held for culpability in alleged neutrality violations. Section 11 of the federal code empowering the president to cause the arrest and detention of such persons as Campa.

The filing of this writ in Bisbee yesterday will have the effect of nullifying the efforts to obtain Campa's release on the writ of habeas corpus, it is said.

Charges Not Disclosed. The specific nature of the Mexican government's charges against Campa is not known, except that he is wanted for murder and robbery. The Review recently published, exclusively, the story of Campa's depredations in the Altar district in Sonora, which preceded the sudden collapse of Campa's rebellion.

It was stated that Campa established a death federal courier who fell into his hands by accident and other barbarous acts which in themselves would seem to warrant extradition, trial and execution.

It was Campa who destroyed the passenger train on the Southern Pacific of Mexico's line between Nogales and Cananea and held that section of the state in a state of terror for weeks. He ruthlessly destroyed American property in Mexico and abused and insulted Americans at every opportunity.

"THE ROSARY" Whatever else may be said of Gas-kill and McVitty's new production, "The Rosary," which comes to the Orpheum Theater, Thursday, Matinee and Night, Nov. 28, the charge of imitation of other plays cannot be made. "The Rosary" has had a three months' run in Chicago, two months in New York City and two months at the Globe Theater, Boston.

The play virtually breaks new ground in the dramatic field and should prove a veritable surprise when the curtain rises upon it. It is built upon a thoroughly modern theme, viz: the influence of thought upon the lives and well being of the men and women of our present day.

That thought, intangible and evanescent, as it is still a force, a power, a theory that has for some time past engaged the serious attention of our foremost psychologists, but its portrayal upon the stage has been neglected heretofore.

"The Rosary" attacks the theme boldly. It deals with the lives and fortunes of a little group of people living in the beautiful West Chester country near New York City. The husband is a disbeliever in all religion; his wife, a woman of serious convictions regarding faith in the things of life unseen. Strong in his belief and thoroughly human, a priest moves through the subtle story of this play. When doubts come and the man's and woman's lives are shattered, seemingly beyond the human power to repair, this priest analyzes the situation and by the power of his faith brings both the people whom he loved back to happiness. —Advertisement.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT IS TO BE ADVOCATED

First Actual Steps for Simplified City Government Will Be Undertaken After Committee Meets

WORK WILL BE DONE SYSTEMATIC MANNER

Another step toward a commission form of government for the city of Bisbee will be taken Tuesday evening when the committees appointed by the Warren District Commercial club and the Business Men's Protective association will meet together at the office of the Commercial club in the Copper Queen hotel, to organize as one committee, formulate plans of operation and appoint the necessary sub-committees for the work which is to be done. This follows the action taken by these two associations about a month ago in appointing committees to confer with one another on this matter.

Steps Already Taken. At a meeting of the Protective association held this fall a committee was appointed to take up with the Commercial club the matter of a commission form of government for this city. About the same time former Mayor Newman brought the matter up at a meeting of the directors of Commercial club. At the following meeting of the latter organization members of the Association committee were present and it was decided that the matter should be taken up jointly. The association was to enlarge the powers of its committee and the club then appointed its committee with J. M. O'Connell as chairman and P. M. Buckwalter, Walter E. Evans and Secretary Joe Gray as its members. At a subsequent meeting of the association it named as its committee Ben Cooley, chairman and M. Newman, R. L. Smith and Secretary Ruth as members. Then the matter rested until last week when the two secretaries arranged for the meeting Tuesday evening.

To Investigate First. It is not possible to forecast exactly what will be done at the first meeting but it is understood that one of the first matters will be the appointment of a committee to investigate the financial affairs of the city so as to determine whether a commission form of government would be more economical than the present form and if so how much of an annual saving might be anticipated to result from the proposed change. Upon the report of that committee would depend all further action on the subject. It is also probable that other committees on other points will be named at this meeting that is called for organization purposes.

Among the members of the committees who have been seen by a Review representative there appears to be a sentiment in favor of some modification of what is known as the Stanton form of government, or a single headed administration. This plan contemplates the election of a commission as at present or at large who will select a man to handle the administrative work and who is responsible to them direct and so through them to the people. Such council would have as now the law making power and would also act as a cabinet with the single head. They have the power of removal as well as appointment. It is proposed that they be paid a nominal salary of $5 or $25 for each meeting that they attend. The arduous committee work which they are now called upon to do would be removed and their chief work would be at the regular meetings of their board.

Economy is Object. In seeking a new form of government for Bisbee there is always found the desire for economy. The sentiment seems to prevail that to pay three or four large salaries to commissioners is an expense not needed and that the business manager plan is the best for a city of the size of this one. That is a matter, however, which will come up to the people themselves if it shall be decided that a change in form of government is desirable and is possible at this time. It is this that the committee will undertake to ascertain, report to their associations and so to the people.

TARGET RANGE READY PRESCOTT, Ariz., Nov. 23.—The contract of Brannen & Soner on the military target range at Point of Rock has been finished and improved conditions have been effected by the filling in of many large ravines and the leveling off of the land. The war department to date has expended over $40,000 on this reserve as a target range solely.

POULTRY SHOW NEEDS SUPPORT

Association Has Raised Half of Funds Required to Pay Prizes and Other Necessary Expense

BENEFIT TO DISTRICT

Already the big Poultry, Pigeon & Pet Stock association show to be held in Bisbee, December 18-21, is receiving the support of the business men and mining companies as it well deserves.

Those having the show and its finances in charge feel that they should keep the public informed fully, for it is a public enterprise. This association is to Cochise county, exactly what a County Fair is to this large agricultural section of the central states.

One idea seems to possess some of the business men and citizens which is most erroneous and which the association is anxious to correct. This show for which funds and special prizes are being solicited, is a public affair. The members of the organization give their time, labor, and best effort for the benefit of the entire county. It is not a money making scheme to any one connected with it. It deserves the hearty cooperation of every public spirited individual, be he business man or laborer in the community. The members are organized as an association for the one purpose of assuring the county that this annual event will be taken care of each year in a manner that will do honor, they hope, to the big, best, and richest county in Arizona. Tucson has just closed a most successful show of a similar nature. The Tucson association informs the local organization that it is to be an annual event in Tucson. Phoenix has not only had a State Fair show, but will hold the Annual State Poultry show during January, 1913.

A full list of the contributions will be published at an early date. Each of the two larger mining companies have donated $50.00 and the merchants have contributed about $100.00 in the entire camp.

Another question has been asked: must one be a member to make entry in the show? No. This is a public affair, supported by contributions by the citizens and local capital, and its exhibitions are open to all. The association wants the people to be considerate when called upon to boost in any manner, for its success depends upon the co-operation of all. The total expense will be about $100.00, not a great sum if all help and will contribute a little. Quoting one of the largest contributors a committeeman said: "I am glad to contribute toward this show. Would like to see more people interested in poultry here, for it will cut the cost of living down, and that is one of the chief problems we are trying to solve."

TO THE PARENT WHO CARES

There are parents forbidding their children attending picture shows and other places of amusement of the kind, and you are the ones to whom this is most directed. We want to remove some of the prejudice you may hold against all picture shows possibly, at least, we want to tell you how the Royal Theater is conducted, and then after you are satisfied in time that we are telling the truth, you ought to assent to a removal of the ban. In the Royal Theater refinement prevails. This does not mean that we cater only to the "La-de-da" sort of patronage by any means. Respectable people of all degrees are welcome at the Royal, and we do not discriminate except that the rowdy, the "masher" and the undesirable in general soon learn to give the Royal a wide berth.

Young boys are a hard proposition to handle by many, but we have little trouble on that score. Order from them is demanded, and when we find one who disobeys, further admission is refused.

So we warrant you good order, and this brings us to the most important part of all things, what the child sees and hears, and the influence of moving pictures. We produce only the very best class of pictures with the addition of good music. The better class of picture theaters all over the country have quit showing any such stuff like "The Jesse James Gang," "Five Years in Sing Sing," "Banah Binford" and that kind of rot. At any rate this is one of them that does not show any such pictures, and never will, and we ask you to believe this fact. We extend you this assurance: Your child, if permitted, to attend the Royal, will not see or hear anything improper in the slightest degree. Never that which is degrading, never the sensational. We do not depend on that kind to attract. Keep an eye on the Royal and sooner or later you will be satisfied that our entertainment is wholesome and a perfectly fit place for your boy or girl to attend. —Advertisement.
